

Prologue

The harvest is plentiful and it is ready now.

Luke 10:2

Prologue

What is a Person of Peace (a God-prepared person)?

1. Open to the Messenger
2. Open to the Message
3. Open their World to the Messenger

Luke 10:5-9

Jesus “had to pass through Samaria” because He was searching for a God-prepared person.

John 4:4; John 5:19-20; Matthew 10:10

God-prepared people are open to the messenger.
Just as they have been responding to the Spirit's work in their lives, they resonate with the Spirit which resides in the messenger.

John 4:7; Luke 10:5-7

Jesus always offers Good News, in every possible form it can take. Followers of Jesus are commissioned to follow His example.

John 4:10; Luke 10:9

Good News in its Various Forms

- John 4: A deathly sick son
- John 5: An invalid
- John 9: Man born blind
- John 11: Dead Man

Good News in its Various Forms

- John 4: A deathly sick son
- John 5: An invalid
- John 9: Man born blind
- John 11: Dead Man
- John 6: Hungry Masses
- John 2: Party with no wine

God-prepared people are open doors for the Good News into new communities and new cultures.

John 4:29-30

The Lord of the Harvest is already working in the mission field to which He has sent you, and has God-prepared people open to the Message you bring.

John 4:35-38

